

Official Rules of the Royal Raid 2020 – trail running event Mauritius

Article 1: No refund will be given to participants in case of cancellation of the race due to any natural catastrophe or any case of "Force Majeure"

Article 2: The minimum age entry are as follows:

Royal Raid 35 – 19 years old

Royal Raid 12 - 16 years old

Royal Raid 5 - 12 years old

Article 3: Participant will have to wear proper sports gear and running shoes for all events.

Article 4: Participants must always wear their Race Bib. The race bib must be presented at Start and all check points including Finish for marking and verification. Failing this will lead to disqualification.

Article 5: The participant must give back his Race Bib to the Organizers for security reasons and to avoid unnecessary searching in any of the following case:

5.1 If he withdraws from the race

5.2 If he is put out of the race by the Organizing Committee, including Race Doctors

5.3 At the Finish line (if required)

If the participant does not respect this procedure, the Organizing Committee declines any responsibility on all consequences and matters resulting from this negligence and reserves the right to refuse the participant from participating in subsequent races.

Article 6: Any Participant who has voluntarily withdrawn from the race or who has been disqualified from the race will have to leave the track path immediately.

Article 7: Each participant will have to evaluate and make provision for his own refuelling, even if the Organizing Committee is making provision for refuelling at different check points.

Article 8: Participants using the help of a pace runner or being carried by car or any motorized or non-motorized vehicle during the race, will be disqualified.

Article 9: Each participant must reach the Finish line at his own pace, by carefully following the markings on and along the track, within official time limits.

Article 10: During the whole race the participant must always carry with him the following equipment's:

RR35: water 1 litre, whistle and cell phone

RR12: water 1 litre and whistle and cell phone

RR5: water 0.5 to 1 litre, with cell phone recommended

If a participant is found not to have the compulsory equipment, he will be immediately put out of the race.

Article 11: The Medical Team of the Organizing Committee have full and irrevocable power to decide, at any time, whether a participant is fit enough or not, to continue the race.

Article 12: Any damage to the markings, tracks, damage to and or pollution of the natural environment and materials installed by the Organizing Committee by a participant or any participant's supporters (member of family, friend etc.) will result in the immediate disqualification of the participant.

Official Rules of the Royal Raid 2020 – trail running event Mauritius

Article 13: Any participant threatening or insulting a member of the organization will be disqualified.

Article 14: Responsibility of the Organizing Committee will be ceased for any incident occurring on the track after the passage of the “Serre File” Team closing the race or for not respecting the Rules & Regulations.

Article 15: The Organizing Committee reserves the right to change or modify (for security or any other reasons) the track path and the time limits along the track, without notice.

Article 16: Any claims by a participant must be made in writing and handed to the Organizing Committee within 30 minutes of the provisional results having been posted. After a time of deliberation and consultation, the decision of the Committee is final.

Article 17: By his/her registration into the race, the participant automatically accepts to abide by all the Rules and Regulations of the race. Furthermore, he gives the right to the Organizing Committee to use any photo and video on which the participant is seen for the promotional purposes of the race.

Article 18: No animal is allowed on the race.